An Evening of Music, Inspiration, Awards & Food
Honoring Mary Schaffner, Founding Executive Director of District of Columbia International Charter School

Baritone Anthony D. Anderson's captivating performance with Michael Crabill celebrates Anthony's & 2021-22 Supplemental Scholarship awardees' achievements. Watch Anthony's appearances on the Today Show, NBC4, WUSA9.

Why does Sponsorship Matter?

To build our Supplemental Scholarship Fund for our determined, hardworking student scholars, who are so full of potential, but lacking in necessary financial resources. They deserve all we do for them, and more to fulfill that potential. For example:

- Fall 2021, Anthony, our evening's performer, received an award for grad school applications, and travel expenses to audition as he commits to a career in opera.

Your sponsorship will help cover housing, college-related & living expenses to supplement his grad school tuition scholarship.

- January 2022, a 2021 laptop award recipient wrote, "...thank you again... it has been such a great help and a load off my shoulders." She was wondering how she could get an iPad for, "annotating typed-up notes, and drawing molecular structures in chemistry and diagrams in physics." She was awarded an iPad and apple pencil.

Your sponsorship will provide funds to help her pursue her Biology degree and career in research.

“A lot of people think if you give a kid a scholarship, now the kid’s set... they’ve got everything they need. Nothing could be further from the truth.”

Chris Metzler, director of student services at Thaddeus Stevens College of Technology

What Are the Major Expenses for Students?

- Tuition
- Room & Board
- Textbooks
- School Supplies
- Technology
- Personal Expenses
- School Activities & Fees
- Transportation
- Professional Clothing
- Test Prep Courses

Veterinarian, Biologist/Researcher, Opera Singer are among their goals. The lives of students we support are vastly different from their wealthier peers. Donations toward our Supplemental Scholarship fund help financially disadvantaged, ambitious, college scholarship recipients overcome financial hurdles, pursue their potential, and ease their journey toward degrees, professions, and upward mobility.

“Financially Disadvantaged”

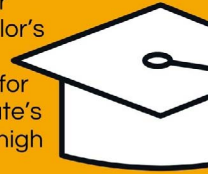

“The word financially disadvantaged doesn’t offend me because it is true and I know it is not my fault. I think the words surrounding the adjectives are important like “ambitious” and should be emphasized because in all you are helping students make a way when originally there would be no way. They have goals, dreams, and aspirations just like anyone else except their financial situation puts them a little farther away from the finish line than other students whose families are affluent...I went off on a little tangent, but in all, I think the adjectives are ok with me and shouldn’t offend anyone.”

-Damaris, DC International Charter School (DCI), class of 2021, first year scholarship student at Lewis & Clark University

Our Supplemental Scholarship Awards, that cover basic expenses that wealthier families can afford, are invaluable contributions to student success and help reduce crippling debt.

In Their Words...

“One day I hope to inspire those from my community who just like me did not have opportunities, to show them the same water that hardens the egg softens the potato. Your environment does not suggest who you are, only you can.”

Sponsorship Promise - an Invaluable Return on Investment

Beyond broad exposure, your contribution is an investment with a meaningful, invaluable ROI. A 2021 high school grad remarked in her "Thank You" note, "the laptop took a load off my shoulders". The cost of college-related essentials for college scholarship students often leads to high student loan debt burdens or dropping out due to their families' limited resources. Supplemental Scholarship awards lower their debt, facilitate their achievements and pursuit of upward mobility. To learn more, read our Impact Statement; listen to student interviews.

"I used my gift card to help pay my tuition which took a great load off myself and my parents... I use the MacBook you guys have gifted me everyday and it has greatly helped me in my classes.... I cannot express how grateful I am to have been given such great gifts and I hope that All Out for Change continues to make an impact in other students' lives the same way you guys did with my life. Thank you again."
